

Sue W. Cole

Principal

Ms. Cole is a Principal of Granville Capital, Inc. She has 35 years of experience in the financial services industry and is currently responsible for client service and development.

Prior to joining Granville Capital, Inc. in July 2006, Ms. Cole was the Regional CEO, Mid-Atlantic Region, of United States Trust Company, N.A., where she was responsible for the overall strategic direction, growth, and leadership of the five offices in North Carolina, Philadelphia and Washington, D.C.

Ms. Cole joined North Carolina Trust Company, the predecessor to U.S. Trust Company of North Carolina, as an Executive Vice President in 1987 and was promoted to President in 1997, Chief Executive Officer for North Carolina in 2001, and Regional CEO for the Mid-Atlantic Region in 2003. Previously, she was a Senior Vice President at NCNB, where she was responsible for Corporate Banking Services in the Greensboro area and managed the retail branch system.

Ms. Cole has been and remains active in community affairs. She currently serves as a Director and member of the Executive Committee for the NC Biotechnology Center and the Moses Cone Wesley Long Community Health Foundation. She also serves on the boards of United Way of Greater Greensboro, the Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro, the North Carolina Economic Development Board, and the Board of Governors for the Center for Creative Leadership. In addition, she is on the Board of Directors of Martin Marietta Materials, Inc., a NYSE company.

Ms. Cole served as Chairman of the NC Chamber, NC Biotechnology Center, the Greensboro Area Chamber of Commerce, UNCG Bryan School of Business & Economics Advisory Board, Guilford College Board of Visitors, President of the Greensboro Center City Corporation, and Trustee of UNCG.

Ms. Cole attended the University of North Carolina at Greensboro where she earned her B.S. in Business Administration in 1972 and her M.B.A. in Finance in 1977. She lives with her husband, Gordon, in Greensboro, North Carolina. They have two daughters and one grandson.